

CONFERENCE PROGRAM*

DRAFT

SEA18 CONFERENCE
Skilling our Maritime Nation
Hotel Realm, Canberra

Monday, October 15
7.00 – 10.00pm	SEA18 Registration & Nightcap High Courtyard North Hotel Realm
Tuesday, October 16
7.00 - 8.00am	Breakfast with the The Hon. Michael McCormack MP Deputy Prime Minister
8.00 - 8.30	BREAK & EXHIBITION
	Welcome & Overview of SEA18: Skilling our Maritime Nation Teresa Lloyd, CEO - MIAL
	Vice Admiral Michael Noonan, AO Chief of Navy
	Australia's Energy Security: The Greatest Threat to our Survival Piers Akerman, Australian Journalist
11.00 – 11.40	MORNING TEA & EXHIBITION
	The 2018 Maritime Workforce Update Sarah Cerche, Director, Workplace Relations – Domestic & International, MIAL
	The Contemporary Maritime Skills Training Landscape A panel Discussion with those who are involved in strategic seafarer skills training
1.00 – 2.00	LUNCH & EXHIBITION
	Why train? Maritime Skills Contributing to National Prosperity A panel discussion with the shore based users of strategic seafaring skills: Ports, Pilots, Surveyors, Regulators
3.00 – 3.30	AFTERNOON TEA & EXHIBITION
	The Solutions New Pathways. Immigration. Fix the Current Pathway.
	Walk a mile with MIAL...our vision for the future An open discussion with Teresa Lloyd, MIAL CEO to see what it will take to make positive change
	The Hon. Anthony Albanese, MP Shadow Minister for Transport
5.00 – 6.30	FRESHEN UP
6.30 – 10.00pm	SEA18 Gala Dinner A Message from Malcolm Hotel Realm Ballroom

SEA18 Conference Accommodation Special Rates: Special accommodation rates are available for SEA18 delegates. To book your accommodation please call 02 6163 1888 or email reservations@domahotels.com.au and quote the group booking code: 1810SEA2018. Further information on the Hotel Realm is here.

For further information on the SEA18 Conference please phone 03 9647 6000 or email mial.events@mial.com.au.

*Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information in this Conference Program, changes may occur.